PROFILE SUMMARY

Aspiring Backend Developer with hands-on experience building RESTful APIs using NodeJs, ExpressJs, and MongoDB. Familiar with JWT authentication, middleware, input validation, and Git-based development workflows. Currently expanding expertise in React, SQL, TypeScript, and Data Structures & Algorithms while developing full-stack projects such as a Smart Expense Splitter. Passionate about writing clean, maintainable code and solving real-world problems.

Weather Forecast Web App

HTML · CSS · JavaScript · REST API

- Built a responsive, mobile-friendly weather app consuming the OpenWeatherMap public API
- Displays real-time weather data — temperature, humidity, conditions — based on user-entered city
- Handled API error states (invalid city, network failure) with user-friendly messages
- Wrote clean, well-commented JavaScript with clear separation of API logic and UI rendering
